

Hon. H.W.P.,-----3.

an article by Professor E. W. Kemmerer of Princeton University — Agricultural Credit in the United States — in the December (1912) issue of The American Economic Review; to one by Mr. Joseph W. Pincus in the National Stockman and Farmer of February 6th; to another by Frank P. Stockbridge in the current issue of Hearst's Magazine; and to one by the writer in the same issue of Business America.

If I can be of any service in the matter, please command me. Should you desire to talk it over with me I shall be pleased to call on you at any time convenient to you.

Yours very respectfully,

(LGR-GL)

General Manager.
